

INTRODUCTION TO PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY INSURANCE

Course Description

The Course gives an introduction to the main aspects of the operation of Protection and Indemnity Clubs. It details the structure of Clubs, the liabilities that are covered, and some practical aspects of the risks involved.

Target Audience

This course will be of interest to anyone who needs an understanding of Protection and Indemnity Clubs operation and the cover they provide. It is suitable for P and I Club members, insurance brokers, underwriters, broker support staff, claims staff, ship managers, marine lawyers, and surveyors.

Course Objectives

On completion of the course, delegates will:

- Understand how Protection and Indemnity Clubs evolved and how they operate
- Understand the liabilities to which Shipowners are exposed and which the Clubs protect
- Be aware of the range of benefits to which members of Clubs
- Be aware of the risk factors involved

Course Format

A presentation, with discussion of the issues involved.

Course Content

- Protection and Indemnity Clubs and Mutuels: their structure and operation
- Protection and Indemnity Clubs: origin and history
- The February 20 renewal date explained
- Shipowners' liabilities
- Shipowners' benefits of membership
- Containers: advantages and disadvantages
- The cost of human errors
- Personal safety shipboard

Trainer Len Wilkins FCII

Len Wilkins has worked in marine and aviation insurance in both underwriting and broking. He has been involved in training for many years. He runs his own training consultancy and is employed by many organisations in the London insurance market. He has acted for Government Agencies, Banks and insurance companies and is an honorary visiting Lecturer University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology. He is also a contributor to a number of Sweet and Maxwell publications on insurance and CII text books.

Duration 1 day

Date 29th February 2012

Time 9.30 am - 5.00 pm

Venue Novotel Tower Bridge, Pepys Street, London EC3N 2NR

Fee £245.00 +VAT (including refreshments and buffet lunch)

Bookings To reserve a place on this course please contact Tony Gregory
Telephone: 01491 872839 / 07712482212
or email: tony.gregory@imc-seminars.com